The Heart of the Matter - Greene

How relevant is the setting to the characters and action of The Heart of the Matter? In your essay consider the climate and physical environment, the British colonial government and expatriates, the indigenous people and the war background.