Your Next Move

Like many, you may be thinking about the next step, the next challenge in your education or career. Undergraduate and Postgraduate degrees, internships, full-time employment or new horizons might be on your radar. If that's the case...

...then this year's KSU Careers Expo is a good opportunity to get ahead! You can meet up with various businesses, Faculties and student organisations who are all ready to provide information, career paths and advice. You will also have the chance to leave your CV and get that key first interview with some of Malta's top companies right there and then.

In your free hours join KSU at the University Quadrangle on 26, 27 and 28 February by filling the form <https://goo.gl/forms/TXXnFYDgzcOUbjHD3>

End-of-Year Examinations

The end-of-year examinations timetable can be viewed on the JC website www.jc.um.edu.mt

The first resit session will be held on Saturday 31 August 2019. The full timetable will be published in July.

Euroscola 2019

A group of JC students once again participated in Euroscola 2019 organised by the European Parliament. There were over 600 students from 21 of the EU Member States. Euroscola offers students the opportunity to be an MEP for the day. They even get to vote on EU-related issues such as immigration, sustainable development and the future of Europe. This year students also discussed the upcoming EU elections.

In order to be chosen for this visit, students had to sit for a test related to how the EU works, and the top 24 were chosen. In preparation for the actual Euroscola day, the students were allocated a theme and had to research the topic and give a presentation. The themes chosen were related to workshops and debates that took place at the European Parliament during the event.

In addition to a day at the European Parliament, students were fortunate to visit the Court of Human Rights and meet with Maltese Judge Vincent De Gaetano, who gave a talk to the students and explained how the court works, including a brief tour of the court. Judge De Gaetano also participated in a question and answer session with the students.

As part of the educational and cultural programme, the group visited the cathedral, and Petite France. They also had a boat trip organised explaining the history and buildings around Strasbourg and several museums.

Museum staff and curators will lead us on a series of thematic tours of the displays and study collections. Talks will be held discussing the role of the museum and its collection, including a number of rare items which are very rarely placed on display.

Participants will also have the opportunity to participate in discussions about diverse animals ranging from insects to bats and birds, which make the museum their home. The event will end on the museum roof, witnessing the sun rising over the Maltese Islands, followed by breakfast.

Activity includes dinner at Veduta Restaurant on Friday, entrance and tour at the Museum, breakfast on Saturday and a hoody shirt as a memento.
