Photography Competition - 'Breaking Barriers'

Maria Vella

The literal translation of breaking a barrier is interpreted here. The glass is the barrier and the force applied by the man using the hammer causes it to shatter. The physical definition of breaking a barrier is understood.

Papers for Recycling

Junior College currently collects A4 papers stacked ONLY, ideally in boxes or envelopes. NO shredded or crumpled paper is collected. Paper MUST NOT CONTAIN any plastics (so no bulk student projects) so: plastic folders are not to be inserted in the stacked papers. Such stacked paper should be left outside your offices on Wednesday 29 May for Collection.

In the meantime staff is reminded not to leave any grey or green bags as these are not collected - unless staff members take responsibility themselves for their collection and disposal - as is done in the Biology and Environmental Science departments.

We thank you for your cooperation

JC Library Extended Hours

During the month of May, the JC Library will be open every Tuesday and Thursday until 19:00. Students can make use of all library services such as borrowing books, using computer stations and WiFi. We hope to see many of you there!
