Awards Evening 2018

The annual University Junior College Awards Evening was held on Friday 2 November in the auditorium. Awards were presented to students who obtained the highest marks in their assessments and End-of-Year examinations throughout the course. Awards were also presented to students who, during their course of studies, distinguished themselves in activities which help to establish the good name and uphold the ethos of the College.

The Awards were presented by the Parliamentary Secretary for Youths, Sports and Voluntary Organisations, the Hon. Dr Clifton Grima. Congratulations to all awardees!
