BOOKMark

The eighteenth issue of BOOKMark, the Junior College Library Newsletter is now out and can be viewed at:

um.edu.mt/library/oar//handle/123456789/36969

In the eighteenth issue of BOOKMark we continue with the second part of the feature regarding the University's Students Anthem and some background information about Mro Carmelo Pace. In On the Job we speak to advocate Dr Jennifer Cosaitis about what it takes to become an advocate and what the job really entails. We also have original works in both prose and poetry. In our sports feature we discuss the rules and regulations for playing futsal.

We would love to hear from you! If you would like to contribute for the next issue of BOOKMark all you have to do is :

1. write an article on your preferred subject, which is not more than 1000 words (images can be included).
2. poetry and short stories are also accepted in any language. If you enjoy writing, we would be glad to publish your works.
3. if you enjoy reading and would like to recommend a book to our readers, why not send us a book review! Plenty to choose from in the JC collections!
4. are you a member of a student club? Tell us your experience. We'd love to hear from you!

Send us your work by not later than Friday 18 January 2019 and we shall include it in the next issue of BOOKMark!

We hope you enjoy this issue!

Caps - L-Istrina

This year 17 bags of caps were collected for the L-Istrina Campaign coordinated by Greenpak. Thanks to all staff and students who helped in this project. Caps will still continue to be collected throughout the year for next year's campaign.

Such caps originate from single use plastic bottles - mostly bottled water - so ideally this should and could be minimised by using multiple-use water bottles. Marker caps are also recyclable - also coffee jar caps and detergent bottle caps.

Italian at SEC level

Students who studied Italian at SEC level are invited to participate in a research study entitled "Le strategie di relativizzazione nell'italiano L2 di apprendenti maltesi," by Ms Rose Marie Callus.

Students who would like to participate are to send an email to Ms Callus at rose.m.callus.00@um.edu.mt

Reminder: Benjamin Franklin

Transatlantic Fellows Initiative: Summer Institute

The Embassy of the United States of America is organising this initiative, which will be held during the summer of 2019. The initiative is open to young people aged 16 to 18, and its purpose is to foster relationships among young Europeans and Americans. Students will participate in a variety of activities such as training sessions, workshops, community-based programmes, study tours and cultural events.

More information is available at the Office of the Principal.

Genocide Convention

This year, we mark the 70th anniversary from the signing of the Genocide Convention. History presents us with too many stark examples of how mistakes have been repeated over and over, to the detriment of thousands and millions of innocent lives. Raising consciousness is key to ensure a safer, just and more peaceful future. The Department of Geography and History at the Junior College has taken the initiative to this end. Junior College staff members and students are all encouraged to join us for any or all of these events. Thanks
